AAUW MISSION

To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education and advocacy.

President's Message

By Lisa Hughes (Co-president with Carol Koszyk)

I hope everyone's year is off to a good start, and that you're staying warm and dry. (As a recent transplant from California, I'm still dealing with the high temperature of the day being in the 40s. When I talk about the temperature being in the 40s, I expect that to be the low overnight!)

It's been such fun to get together for in-person meetings. In January, April Hamlin from Rogue Community College did a wonderful presentation on Title IX, which is now 50 years old. We have made a lot of progress in those years, but there is much more that needs to be done. As we continue to move forward, more attention is being paid to race and ethnicity, athletes with disabilities, and people who are non-binary, transgender, or gender queer. April is the Dean of Student Success and Title IX Deputy Coordinator for Rogue Community College, and knows her subject. (see page 5).

In February, we were invited out to the Mercy Flights campus, with a great presentation on the history of the organization by its CEO, Sheila Clough. I especially enjoyed learning about their Mobile Integrated Health Care (MIH), which provides patient-centered mobile resources to help people navigate services available to them to help keep them out of the hospital. We toured their facilities, which included a chance to talk to staff members on the flight teams and to peek inside one of their two helicopters and one of their three fixed-wing airplanes. While I hope none of us have to use their services, it is enormously reassuring to know that they exist.

You should have received the announcement from State AAUW about the state conference in Ashland April 14-16. The state board is subsidizing part of the cost of registration so it is only $30. There are lots of opportunities to learn, have fun, and grow, and I hope to see a lot of you there.

Most especially, it would be great if we had a good turnout for lunch on Saturday, when Andrea Reeder will receive the Breaking Barriers Award. This award is given annually to an Oregon woman or organization, who is not in AAUW, but who has exemplified AAUW's mission in a way that has had an impact on our state's women and girls in the areas of equity and/or education. She was nominated by Medford member Sherry Schroeder. It's great to support one of our own.

Our branch qualifies for four delegates to vote at the Annual Meeting on Saturday, April 15, at 10:30 am. As president, I am automatically a delegate, but we need three more people. If you are interested, please contact me (408-316-0004 or LHLISASTITCH@gmail.com). Thanks!

If you are interested in being a branch delegate to the AAUW of Oregon 2023 Annual Meeting & Conference in Ashland (April 14-16), contact Lisa Hughes by March 7th. (Funds are available to assist with registration cost.) As a delegate, you must be available to attend the Saturday meeting at 10:30 a.m.

In upcoming programs, KS Wild will do a presentation on Saturday, March 4 at the Rogue Credit Union. They work to protect and restore wild nature in the Klamath-Siskiyou region of southwest Oregon and northwest California. On Thursday, April 6, Debra Lee, the executive director of the Center for Nonprofit Legal Assistance, will be our speaker at the Sun Oaks Clubhouse. We will host a reception at Sun Oaks for our scholarship recipients on Saturday, May 20, 3-5, at the Sun Oaks clubhouse. For more information, see Kathy Swarts' article on page 4.

Our nominating committee has selected our new slate of officers. We'll be voting on them at our meeting on Thursday, April 6, after the program. (Social time will begin at 5:30, and the program at 6.) Many thanks to our nominating committee (Sandi Cameron, Ellen Jones, Carol Koszyk, Judie Salter, and Kathy Swarts) and to our slate of officers (see page 4). In addition to the officers, Judie Salter has volunteered to be our STEM director and Kathy Swarts volunteered to be our Interest Groups/ACT (AAUW Community Team) chairperson. Many thanks to them for taking on these responsibilities!

I am trying to pull together a committee to work on making AAUW more visible in the community. If you are interested, please contact me (408-316-0004 or LHLISASTITCH@gmail.com). (And I know someone spoke to me at the meeting in January. I apologize that I don't remember who it was, but I would love to hear from you!)

Looking forward to seeing you soon!
Lisa

MARCH 4th GENERAL MEETING

The Klamath Siskiyou Wildlands Center (KS Wild) works across 8 million acres of public land in southwest Oregon and northwest California, advocating for clean water, old-growth forests, and biodiversity.

Our little corner of the world is home to wild rivers teeming with salmon and steelhead, and our ancient forests harbor rare plants and endangered species, such as the Pacific fisher, Northern spotted owl, and Siskiyou Mountain salamander. Other species like the Gray wolf are just now starting to recover to the region. The Klamath Siskiyou is also one of seven areas in North America labeled by the International Union of Concerned Scientists as a global botanical hotspot. We use advocacy, public education, collaboration, and at times litigation, to encourage restoration and conservation of public lands.

Michael Dotson, our featured speaker for our March General Meeting, is the Executive Director at KS Wild and has been working with the organization since 2013. He first served as the organization's development director and transitioned to leadership in September 2019. Michael supports all aspects of KS Wild's administration and conservation programming, including the Rogue Riverkeeper program. He works closely with partners & rural communities to defend wild rivers and fish habitat that are threatened by industrial mining and logging proposals. He enjoys exploring the public lands and rivers of the region as a hiker, backpacker, and whitewater rafter, and you might find him in swimming holes every summer in his favorite wild areas, including the Siskiyou, Wild Rogue, and Kalmiopsis Wilderness Areas.

The Center for NonProfit Legal Services was founded by local Bar Association and community leaders in 1972. Currently, it specializes on essential safety net services which includes: Housing/Consumer, Family Law, Income Maintenance (federal and state public benefits) and Individual Rights (Immigration Law and Protective Services for vulnerable and underserved populations).

The Center's focus includes:

- Furthering affordable and fair housing with disaster relief component to avoid homelessness through housing stabilization
- Improve income for disabled and elderly through income maintenance (SSA, Medicaid, Medicare appeals)
- Reinstatement of drivers' licenses and expungement which removes legal barriers to work, housing and benefits
- Domestic relations (child support and insurance)
- Immigration cases for work authorization, and hold monthly citizenship classes.

Low-income Jackson County residents have been able to receive legal assistance from CNPLS for 50 years, specializing in poverty law.

We collaborate with community partners and local municipalities to address homelessness and provide community outreach and legal education on rights and responsibilities. We partner with Association of Oregon Legal Services Programs on statewide Eviction Defense Program and Oregon Home Ownership Legal Program.

We are fortunate to have Debra Lee, Executive Director of the Center, speak to us. Ms. Lee was born in Toisan, China, and immigrated with her family to Providence, Rhode Island, in 1956. She earned a bachelor's degree from University of Rhode Island, and her JD from Antioch School of Law, Washington, D.C.

Before becoming the Executive Director of the Center for NonProfit Legal Services in 1989, Debra practiced as a legal aid attorney in West Tennessee, Central Arkansas and Jackson County. She has contributed innovative ideas to critical poverty issues, supported diversity, and equal access to justice.

Debra is currently involved with Medford Rogue Rotary Club, S O U Board of Trustees, Medford Housing Advisory Commission, Jackson County Continuum of Care Board, Oregon Community Foundation and the American Leadership Forum of Oregon. Her leadership has brought success to the Medford Multicultural Commission (MLK, Multicultural Fair), and Southern Oregon Chinese Cultural Association (Chinese New Year Celebration - Jacksonville, OR).

Debra's awards include the 2019 WVD Pro Bono Award and 2012 Carl H. Brophy Professional Award and contributed to The OSB Elder Law Handbook, Chapter 4 , 2017 Revision. Her professional memberships include the Oregon State Bar, Jackson County Bar Association, and WVD Inn of Court.

AAUW FUNDS

We have a great beginning to the new year. We have contributed $1,900 to AAUW Funds for 2023. A huge thank you to our generous donors.

SLATE OF OFFICERS 2023 / 2024

The Nominating Committee met on Thursday, February 2, 2023, at 10 am at Kathy Swarts' home. Per our bylaws, we needed five members to serve on the Nominating Committee. All five members were present: Sandi Cameron, Ellen Jones, Carol Koszyk, Judie Salter and Kathy Swarts.

The Slate of Officers:

MERCY FLIGHTS MEMBERSHIP!

Contact Sandy Heath (text or call 503-701-2644) by March 1st if you are interested in joining Mercy Flights through AAUW's group membership. (Our regular membership renewal is in March but you can join throughout the year at a pro-rated cost..)

Tour of Mercy Flights Facility Sheila Clough, CEO February 4th General Meeting

Sheila Clough, CEO of Mercy Flights was our speaker and tour guide at the Mercy Flights facility at Medford Airport. We were able to tour their immaculate hanger which holds two Beechcraft King Air 99s and a helicopter, as well as several maintenance bays. We also met their on-duty crew of nurses, paramedic, and pilot, who answered questions and allowed us access to the aircraft. It was amazing! It was reassuring to know these highly trained professionals are there to help us.

Mercy Flights also provides ambulance service to the Rogue Valley, with nearly 30 ambulances to serve the area's needs.

Mercy Flights has several programs in the community, including Mobile Integrated Healthcare, focusing on patients that over utilize emergency department facilities.

Thank you to all our AAUW members who attended this wonderful presentation and tour. This coincided with our Mercy Flights group membership renewal/new members for 2023. Our group rate is $68 for the year (tax deductible). We currently have nearly 30 group members, plus four new members! If you join after March 31st, your membership is prorated. (Contact Sandy Heath, 503-701-2644, if you have questions.)

New Member Spotlight!

Deb Radcliffe

I was born and raised in Portland. I moved to Ashland in 1977 to attend Southern Oregon State College (now SOU), where I earned a degree in Criminology. My career included working with at-risk youth at the Jackson County Shelter and Evaluation Center, the Orange County, California Victim/Witness Assistance office, and the State of Oregon Child Welfare Department. I retired in October, 2019 after 33 years with Child Welfare, with more than 20 years as an Adoption worker, which was a most gratifying career.

My husband, Mike, and I have been married for 31 years. Together we raised three children, and now have three grandchildren. Mike and I enjoy many activities together, including traveling, visiting our children and grandchildren, hiking, camping, kayaking and playing cards. Individually, I enjoy crocheting, reading, sewing, fitness classes, cycling, and running on my treadmill.

I joined AAUW in February after having met several members at their monthly Wine and Whine meeting. I am happy to be part of this AAUW community and look forward to getting to know each member.

WELCOME, DEB!

Plain scones: (shared by Camille Korsmo at our Feb. General Mtg.)

Toss together in a medium-sized bowl:

- 1 8-oz pkg. Jiffy Buttermilk Biscuit Mix
- 2 or 3 Tbsp. sugar (depending on your sweetness preference)

Add one scant cup whipping cream and mix gently w/ a fork until well blended.

Shape scones in one of three ways:

- roll or pat out dough to 1/2" thick and cut into circles
- drop by rounded Tbsp.
- use a cookie scoop (mine has a diameter of 1 3/4")

Place scones on a parchment covered baking sheet. Brush with melted butter and sprinkle w/ granulated sugar. Makes 12-14.

Bake 11-14 minutes in an oven preheated to 425° F, until golden brown.

Flavored scones:

Toss together scone mix and sugar, add 3/4 cup whipping cream and mix gently w/ a fork until nearly blended. Then stir in one of the following:

- 1/2 cup dried cranberries softened overnight in 1+ Tbsp. orange liqueur and 1 tsp. grated orange rind
- 1/2 cup chopped dried apricots softened overnight in 1+ Tbsp. apricot liqueur.
- 1/2 cup currants softened overnight in 1+ Tbsp. brandy or a liqueur of your choice. Shape & bake as above.

Phantom Tea Party!

By now, you should have received your Phantom Tea Party invitation, albeit a month later than is customary. We schedule the fundraiser early in the year so SOU and RCC know well in advance how many scholarships they will be able to offer. Last year AAUW provided FIVE scholarships, each for $2,700. Other than the Camelot Theatre fundraiser, where the proceeds go to National AAUW, this is our sole fundraiser for scholarships. We incorporated into this fundraising the National Organization AAUW Funds for Advanced Degrees. Southern Oregon University and Rogue Community College donations are included in the usual manner.

The Phantom Tea Party has our traditional format – no gathering, no dress up – not even a Zoom meeting, just you and your checkbook. It requests that you indicate on the memo line where and how much you wish to donate to each organization. DETAILED INSTRUCTIONS ARE ON THE BACK OF YOUR INVITATION. Of course, if you have questions, Marlene Olson (541-821-8129, marlene.olson9@gmail.com) is available to answer them. If everyone gives even a little bit, we will be able to keep our local women in school as they work toward their commitment of earning a degree and contributing to their community.

Thanks,
Pat Stoddard

AAUW of Oregon Breaking Barriers Achievement Award

AAUW Medford and the Breaking Barriers Award - GREAT NEWS!!

By Sherry Schroeder

I am thrilled to let you know AAUW OREGON State Selection Committee for 2023 has chosen our Branch Nominee as the 2022 AAUW Breaking Barriers Award recipient. Andrea Reeder was chosen from three nominees submitted. The committee's comments were that this selection was extremely difficult as all nominees were involved in great work regarding equity. The other branches submitting nominees were Ashland and Lincoln City.

This award will be presented to Andrea Reeder, Executive Director and V P at ASANTE Foundation, at the annual AAUW Oregon State Conference. It will happen on Saturday, April 15th, during lunch at the Ashland Hills Hotel. (I hope you can attend!)

Never a more deserving person, Andrea was selected from 3 very deserving Nominations submitted statewide, Medford, Ashland, and Lincoln City Branches. This prestigious awardee is not allowed to currently be an AAUW member, but someone doing work that directly aligns well with our AAUW Mission, Vision and Goals.

Andrea planned and led ASANTE FORWARD, a 10-year campaign and surpassed the original goal in 5 yrs. Andrea has single-handedly raised nearly $35 million to support the health system. As a result, in 2021 the new Heimann Cancer Center opened, a dedicated Cardiac Floor, and a Women's and Children's Health Center will be opened at Rogue Regional Medical Center in 2023. These new facilities serve communities reaching 600,000 total population. Community collaborations include United Way, Compass House, Children's Advocacy Center, and all YMCA's. Under Andrea's direction, this aligns with AAUW and affords women opportunity to Explore issues, Get Empowered, and Take Action through strategic planning.

Having personally worked with Andrea on many occasions, I was honored to submit the written nomination from our branch. Her keys to success include engaging women in the campaign council and recruiting women to her board for equal representation. In addition to her contributions on the Asante executive team, Andrea oversees the entire philanthropic program for the health system, including all capital campaigns and initiative fundraising, Oregon Wine Experience®, and two hospitality houses.

Andrea is part of the leadership team, ABIDE (Asante Belonging, Inclusion, Diversity and Equity) committee. It is a major opportunity for Andrea to ensure equal treatment and advancement for women in an organization through policy and culture change. This certainly aligns with AAUW stated values of Integrity, Inclusion, and Intersectionality.

An old saying goes, "You can't win if you don't play the game". We did "play", and WE WON!

Message from Patricia Garner, Oregon AAUW Diversity Officer for the Annual Meeting and Conference in Ashland.

Patricia is conducting a break-out session on Saturday, April 14th, 3:15 to 4:30, about "DEIB Models for Action." This is a Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging workshop that Patricia will be facilitating.

If possible, she would like to highlight any events, discussions and/or experiences about instilling DEIB principles that are of interest to you. Patricia is asking for a Branch representative who would be willing to talk about it during the workshop. Her purpose in the workshop is to explore what has worked, what hasn't worked, what might work, etc. in the area of diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging.

So, if you are interested in attending and/or being our Branch representative for that workshop, please contact Patricia directly and cc Lisa Hughes and Carol Koszyk. Thank you!

An invitation from Ashland AAUW to hear our Local Educators Discuss Youth Mental Health

These days far too many young people in Southern Oregon and elsewhere face an array of mental health challenges and can't always get the support they need. But it's important to recognize that everyone can play a role in helping the next generation thrive.

“Youth Mental Health and Suicide Prevention” is the topic a free Big Ideas public program organized by the American Association of University Women/Ashland Branch and Jackson County Library Services. It is scheduled on Tues., March 7, 4:00-5:30 p.m., in the Medford Library large meeting room, 205 S. Central Ave.

(NOTE: This Big Ideas event is in Medford as the Ashland Library meeting room undergoes renovation.)

Two professionals from the Ashland School District, Assistant Superintendent Erika Bare and Diane Berry, Counseling and Behavioral Health Teacher on Special Assignment, will address a number of topics. They will share trends in youth mental health challenges both nationally and locally and how many school districts are now integrating mental and social-emotional supports into their school days. Bare and Berry will also discuss a variety of ways families and community members can be more informed and intentional in how they guide and connect with children so they grow to be capable, resilient young people.

Erika Bare has worked in education since 2001. In her current role, she has the privilege of leading Student Services, Special Education, Counseling and Behavioral Health, as well as Elementary Programs. Bare began her education journey as a special educator, and then served as both a high school and an elementary school principal. In each role, she was driven to ensure all students have the supports they need to thrive both emotionally and academically.

Diane Berry is a school social worker and school counselor. She has worked at the elementary, middle and high school levels for 25 years. Currently she works to coordinate and support Ashland School District's K-12 Child Development Specialists, Behavior Health Specialists and School Counselors. Berry is passionate about understanding, appreciating and supporting our children's unique journeys toward healthy, connected and caring young adulthood

WANTED!!

We need a Public Policy Chair!

We are reaching out to you to learn what are your concerns about issues that affect women and girls in our local community.

Some of the questions include:

1. Is there anything going on in your community that you think should be addressed such as regulations, school budgets, city council, etc.?
2. Are you interested in public policy issues? Local or state?

For more information contact Carol Koszyk. Public Policy Chair is a voting member on Medford's Board of Directors.

ZOOM

To set up a ZOOM meeting for your Interest Group or other AAUW gathering, you can email Vicki Piper at vpiper@sti.net with this information: Meeting name (Board Meeting, Committee, Wine & Whine...); meeting date, time and duration; and if this meeting is recurrent — on the same day/week each month, etc. Vikki will set up the meeting and then email you with the meeting ID and password. You can then forward the information to your group. (Note: alternate contact is Carol Koszyk)
